

West Midlands Woodturners Privacy Policy

Data Processing

WMWT:

- Does not process members' information electronically or manually other than for the maintenance of the membership register, as required under the terms of incorporation.
- Does not pass information to any third parties either in the UK or anywhere abroad.
- Operates a website which does not use cookies and does not collect personal information from visitors to the website.

Communication:

- Communication with members (outside of scheduled meetings) is primarily by e-mail, for which permission has been obtained from those members in receipt thereof. Paper based communication may be used as necessary or appropriate.
- The newsletter is used primarily for information dissemination to members.
- The website is used primarily to inform members and the public.

Members Register:

- Information on the Members Register is limited to:
- Name, Address, E-mail address, Telephone number(s).
- This information is held on a computer operated by an Officer of the Company.
- This information is held under the requirements to maintain a Members Register for a company limited by guarantee.

Photography:

WMWT or its authorized representative(s) may wish to take photographs of members during meetings and events. These photographs may be used in all media types such as social media (including Facebook and Twitter), WMWT publications and website, the Association of Woodturners Great Britain (AWGB) magazine "Revolutions" and other AWGB publications, the AWGB website, the press, and other woodturning magazines and publications in perpetuity and these photos may be seen around the world.

If members do not wish that any photograph is used in such publications, the member must advise the Secretary or Chairman.